FEZ

Getting lost in Fes is half the fun, but you'll have our guide with you to help you get the lay of the land, through this vibrant labyrinth of a city, alive with the many craftsmen, markets, ceramics and beautiful mosques. Look out for the Medersa Bou Inania, one of the city's coolest buildings, recently restored and now open to visitors. check out the exquisite carvings and tile work at the Medersa el Attarine near the spice and perfume market. You'll also visit the famous tannery and its dye pits and a ceramic factory where you can see potters working in the traditional way.

- Dinner in a Restaurant in the Medina
- Transfer back to the hotel
- Overnight at the hotel in FEZ

Wednesday 30th November 2026

- Breakfast at the hotel

MEKNES

Upon arrival in Meknes, one has a magnificent view of the Medina. The tour begins with a tour of the walls with monumental gates dating from the seventeenth century Berdaïne Bab, Bab Khemis. We continue exploring the city by the stables (Rua), attics (HERI), and Stud. Stop needed at the Mausoleum of Moulay Ismail was for a long time the only mosque that non-Muslims could visit in Morocco. It then exits through the famous Bab Mansour El on the vast square Hedim. On the other side of the square, the Museum of Moroccan Art “Dar Jamai” offers a wide variety of handcrafts.
